25 Year Reunion - boys' lime

Raymond Samms & Paul Wooling look on as Richard Figaro greets Nigel Wooling

On Friday 3rd July the fellas got together in Santa Cruz to get reacquainted with each other and to catch up on old times. For some it was 25 years worth of catching up. The liming venue was one owned by classmate Davindra Maharaj so in a way the lime was kept 'in the family'. The food was flowing, the alcohol was flowing even more, and the ole talk was...well...you know dem fellas. And at some point in the night Dylan Marfan, who flew in from Florida, thought he was an acrobat and....well....let's just say that he did not make it to the Saturday function and left Trinidad with quite a souvenir...his foot in a cast.

Tsunami Function

On Saturday 4th July the focus switched to the Tsunami Beach Club at Chaguaramas, adjacent to The Anchorage.

A banner with the reunion logo, which was designed by the late Simon Farrell, was draped at the entrance to greet each incoming person. At the entrance was also a table with a sign-in book for all to sign and leave comments, some disposable cameras so that everybody could get involved and capture the night's festivities from their perspective, and souvenir magazines from the previous 20-year reunion.

Areas of Tsunami were transformed somewhat into different areas of Fatima College: School Hall, Sixth Form Block, School Yard, Cafeteria, TD Room and the Teachers Lounge (one of the Tsunami gazebos). There were also pictures posted at the bar perimeter with shots from school days, the last reunion and also from limes that have occurred in the five years since the last reunion.

The format this time was more informal with cutters being served as opposed to the more formal sit-down dinner format of the 20 year reunion. There was a lot more mingling amongst the guests this time although the teachers seemed to be having such a grand ole time in the Teachers Lounge that they rarely emerged from there. For many of them it was a grand occasion as they had not seen each other in quite some time.

A significantly larger number of teachers attended this time around: Francisco Garcia, Mervyn Achille, Alloy Lee Ha, Beverly De Four, Diane Persaud, Jeannete Elias (formerly Zakour), Maurice Brash, Mrs. C.

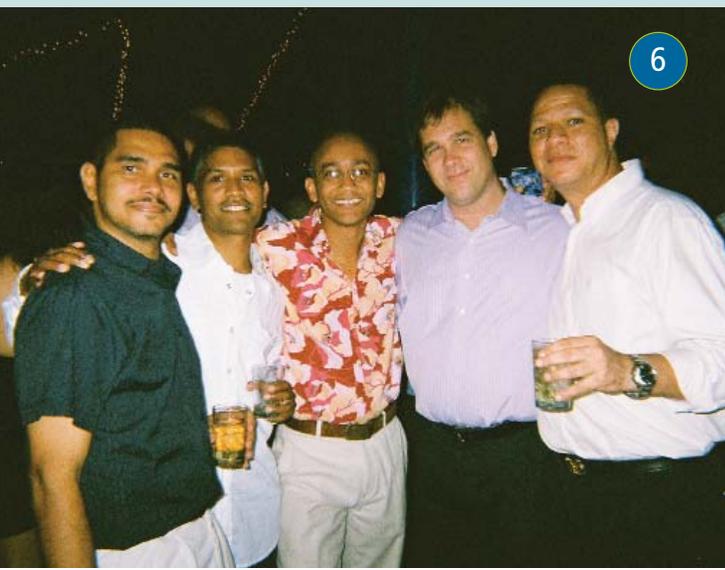

Ahwai, Kathy Ann Garcia, Myrtle Cumberbatch, Marion Hubbard, Barbara Jenkins, Glen Roach, Mervyn Moore, F. De Silva, Harry Ramdass, Brendon Kuei Tung and Fr. Lennox Mc Phillip. Current acting Fatima Principal Father Gregory Augustine attended as well as Fatima Old Boys Association President, Barry Davis.

A special thanks to those 'foreigners' who flew in to celebrate this special occasion (9 guys flew in this time as opposed to 6 the last time): Duane Andrews (New York), Davin Borde (Florida), Steven Cheng Wing (Florida), Whitney Chin (Canada), Alan Donawa (Guyana), Richard Figaro (New York), Neil Lalsingh (Canada), Dylan Marfan (Florida) and Dominic Robain (New York).

The slide show of pictures from our ole school days that was such a hit at the last reunion was reshowed and it was a hit all over again. Classmates Colin Inniss and Wayne Blackman did a great job as DJs for the night.

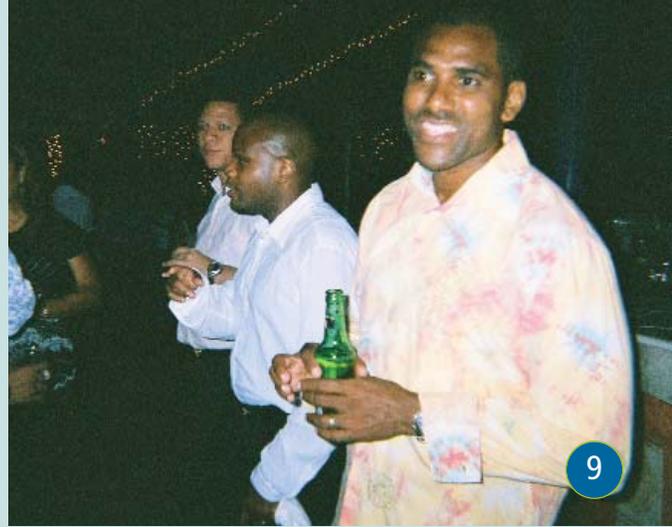

And not to be outdone by the last reunion, each attendee was pleasantly surprised to be presented with a parting gift as they left: a commemorative package which included a polo shirt, cap and mug, each of which had the reunion logo and theme on it.

A beach lime was originally carded for Maracas Beach the next day but because of the inclement weather plans were changed and instead the lime was held at Pizza Boys, Maraval.

Greatest Memories From Fatima

My entire time at Fatima College from form 1 to form 5 were the greatest, most memorable and enjoyable years of my life, it was a blast from cover to cover. I will forever be indebted to Mr. Romero!!! Were it not for his intervention (“You fellas have brains, you just playin de fool, only studyin to party.”), I doubt that I would have passed any of my subjects.
Thank you Mr. Romero!!! Simon Farrell

Neil Prima

Swim meets against the other schools

Graeme Ottley

Lower Six Tribunal and Upper Six English Literature Class

Brendon Chow Lin On

Mayfair, skipping school, and getting in trouble

Stacy Morris

Playing sanco with the boys during lunch break and playing football. And in the earlier days, going down in the river after school picking mango and catching wabeen, etc. from the river. And leaving (heh heh).

Kieron Penco

Skipping it altogether, heading off to lime with my pals in Saints or just hanging around town.

Andrew Moore

Going “down the Islands” with the scout troop.

Miguel Figuera

My best time during our school years was from second term Lower Six right up to final exams in Upper Six (i.e. Jan 1985 - June 1986).

Nigel Lee King

Detention after school

Joel Latiff

Disliked getting detention

Roger Koo

Going up in front of the school with the rest of the footballers before an Intercol game

Colin Inniss

Great friendships made in school still exist today; football games; “last days” Form 6 wildness.

Jeffrey Joseph

Double free periods every Friday afternoon in Form 6

Louis Moore

Playing ball; talking crap; playing All Fours at the pavilion

Dominic Garcia

Representing college in football; DJ for college Mayfair (Warriors 1982-83); sleeping in back of hall for 2-3 periods every day.

Nicholas Mohammed

John Romero once gave the class a quiz and everyone had to stand up until they answered the question correctly. When the quiz was over, I was the only one in the class sitting. Even Barry Lee was still standing.

Sheldon Millette

Being thrown out of Form Six Accounting class and still getting an “A” at ‘A’ levels without help from the useless Accounts teacher (we had private lessons from one of the Pantins).

When we had to look at “Faces of Death” with our sister school’s Form 6 class.

Cornell Griffith

Form Six Night Study. Class League Football. Easter Weekends at Las Cuevas.

Jonathan Mike

Football matches with CIC and QRC

Neil Ghany

Liming on the benches outside the Form 6 classrooms; the Las Cuevas camping trip; watching movies in Romero’s office.

Anthony Ali

Upper six retreat down the islands; Sixth form Participation in Christmas Concert; Last Day pranks.

Denton Armstrong

The entire experience

Gregory Eckel

Giving Fr. O’ Dwyer horrors
Maurice Brash giving Burton Hinds an assignment to look up the recipe for Eggs Benedict for talking in class
Mr. Niles’ cockiness – giving fellas “maps to write” for leaving books in their lockers
The dance competition to “Rappers Delight” held in the AV Room when we were in Form I

Edward Kacal

Too many to mention. Winning Intercol in 1979 was an early one.

Douglas Brunton

First term of Form I - Raymond Chin Cheong copied Sean Assam’s homework, so there were 2 sets of homework with Sean Assam on it and they submitted it.

Andrew Peterson

I recall a sports day, Form 4 or 5, I came in second behind Sean Assam in the 800m or 1200m cycle race. Sean won every race, so the competition was for second. Lucas ??? and I were fighting for second, and everyone in the stadium was on their feet.

Colin Alexis

Camping down the islands

Ronald Vieira

Coaching the rugby team

Warren Roberts

The entire experience

Burton Hinds

Mr. Pantin passing round the school one day, picks up Richard Harris’ homework note book with graffiti on it and reads with his crooked snarl... “Here I sit broken hearted, wanted to shit but only farted”. The class being very quiet because he was present erupted into laughter. And Mr. Pantin yells "THIS IS NOT A LAUGHING MATTER". The class came to an abrupt silence. You could hear a pin drop. He then ordered Harris and Simon Farrel up to his office where they got "BLOWS". It was a funny day.

Gavin Chin Lee

While in Form 3, playing Prefect and chasing the Form 1's down the stairs from upstairs of the Form 1 Wing.

Getting the leather strap from every Dean, including the Principal.

Always in Detention.

And of course skipping classes...who doesn't?

Dylan Marfan

Form Six years were the greatest

Charles Pashley

Drinking down the islands

Daryl Young

Being scared of Mr. Holman; getting 'licks' from Mr. Romero; leaving

Davindra Maharaj

School was a real life lesson and every year came with its unique memories.

Gerard D'Arcy

George's doubles

Dave Inniss

The entire experience

Wayne Blackman

The entire experience. Time spent in Cadets.

Alan Acanne

Favorite teacher - Miss Zakour (Form 1 & 2 French); Favorite subject(s) - French (see above) & English

Nigel Wooling

In Form 6, a guy came to demonstrate 'Commando Street Fighting' and we got into a major scuffle in the school hall.

Sean Assam

Keith Scotland and Ronald Roberts always eating my cheese paste sandwiches

Whitney Chin

Hearing the chorus of the boys coming over from the field in a string of cars singing 'Fatima Boys' on the last day of Form 6 - it was quite a sight.

Scouts were always a great time - The World

Jamboree in 83 was the greatest.

Finishing the sports day half marathon in 1985 in 3rd place, ahead of all the jocks that burst out from the starting line at the beginning of the race.

Anthony Williams

Crazy men like Martin Steele and Berbick (Raymond Samms)

Gregory Laurence

Soaking down the prefects during a football game, when a shot I took hit the guttering above them and broke it, drenching them from head to toe. It was repayment for the detentions and lines they made me do. I had the last laugh.

Yinka Bada

Ravi Samaroo - on the football field, giving people a "spanner"; Ronald Roberts - coasting with the RX7; Brian Elias - shaving at 12

Paul Downer

The football league final between Form 2 Group 2 and Form 1 Group 4; the two small men fighting - Jeffrey Joseph and Dylan Martineau

Richard Batson

Kicking ball across on the field; liming with partners

Andre Paty

Getting into fights with Gregory Laurence and dem fellas

Allan Gooding

Marlon Hoo Fat scoring a goal with his chest; while I was a Prefect, people always used to get quiet around me, even the Form 6 fellas, because I used to discipline all Forms, including my fellow Form 6 classmates.

Colin Zamore

Keith Scotland sticking Neil Prima in the neck with a divider during Chemistry class

Raymond Chin Cheong

Real great bunch of guys, once a Fatima boy, now a Fatima Old Boy.

Fidel Gonzalez

Lunch time and home time

Keith Scotland

Having the record for the best excuses for reaching to school late; the year we won intercol

Stephen Harris

Throwing up my "sucked-up" salt-prune seed in the air in the AV Room (when everyone was bothering me for a salt-prune from my pack) and my bro, the said Jeffrey, again the shortest man, jumping above everyone else to grab the seed and to put it into his mouth, before realising that it was only a seed (Jeffrey will deny this story I'm sure).

Rivers, the Fatima goalkeeper - incredible saves one minute, ball trickling through his hands the next. The boy always had you praying...

The form six "dunking spree" that was started (I believe) by my lime (dunking Herbert or Castro I think?) in kicks, and then it spreading like wildfire to the rest of the form...

Colin's (Inniss) famous "last words" of "he (meaning Keith Chan) can't take that corner faster than me!" just prior to us crashing his brother's Escort on Memorial Park in trying to keep-up with Keith in his parent's station wagon. My virgin accident!

Keith Chan

Lunch time small goal competition in the quadrangle and Principal Pantin's attempt to stop it by planting a tree in the middle of the field... the tree lasted a week and football continued

Raymond Samms hopping into the river without procrastination to retrieve our football outside the Form 6 block.

Neil Ghany returning for lesson with his father's car completely covered in mud: he ran off the road in the West Mall area.

Alfred Fakoory speeding into the compound but failing to stop in time and parking his car into a pillar of the Form 6 building;

The stopping of a football match in progress on the main field when a load crash was heard: it was Colin Alexis crashing into the school's entrance gate pillar. He reversed to adjust and crashed again. The game went into a recess of laughter.

The respect I felt from the class when I was assigned to as a Lower 6 prefect: I'm still friendly with some of the guys

Anthony Assing

Most of my memories of Fatima have been good and I have remained in close contact with our old Scout Leader Raoul Poon Kong.

Karim Rahaman

Going around the corner from school to lime by that parlour which was run by Boysie; Mr. Sunderji's command over the field of mathematics.

Rest in Peace

Simon Farrell aka Beaker, Spiccolli (from Fast Times at Richmond High), Red Man

(October 15th 1966 – September 18th 2009)

Simon was born on 15th October 1966 in Pointe-a-Pierre, Trinidad.

After graduating from Fatima College in 1984, Simon began his career in the Advertising Industry with a two year apprenticeship in Graphic Design, Darkroom techniques and Lithographic Printing with Creative Advertising Ltd. He next took up the position of Assistant Production Manager and Graphic Artist with Horshams Printing Products.

Simon then diversified into Flexography at Caribbean Pre-Press Services and Systems Ltd. Where he learnt package design and was responsible for producing the artwork for blind embossing and foil blocks used by Hallmark Greeting Cards. After 14 years working in the printing industry, which included four years as the Senior Graphic Artist at T&T Printing Works Ltd., Simon moved into the Advertising arena.

He held the position of Senior Graphic Artist at The Edge Advertising Ltd., where he won two Gold Addy awards in 2001 for best press campaign in the Automotive and Alcohol Retail categories. In 2002 he was offered the position as Head of the Quality Assurance Department at Lonsdale Satchi and Satchi Advertising Ltd. And then the position of Manager of the Pre-Press Department at Caribbean Paper and Printed Products (1993) Ltd. In 2008 Simon resigned his position as the Promotions and Creative Design Coordinator at Value Optical Ltd. to start his own home based Graphic Design business. Over the years

Simon had worked on a free-lance basis for CLICO, CANTO, Intercommercial Bank, Burmac, Trinidad Aggregate Products, Caribe

Ceramics, Hilton Hotel, Ambassador Hotel, TSTT, TSTT Credit Union, Neal & Massy Credit Union, Beefeater, Subway, Yellow Submarine and ACM International to name a few. His international clients include Transitions Lenses Inc., Calvin Klein Eyewear and Simple Business Solutions of Lewisham, England who are consultant for the British Government.

He called his business: "Simon Farrell Graphic Designs" and offered the following services: Graphic design, Desktop Publishing, Package Design, Print Brokerage, Radio & Television Advertising Production, Fleet Vehicle Graphics, Indoor & Outdoor Signage, Billboards, Website Design & Maintenance, & Specialty Promotional Items.

He was an avid fisherman, and the family teased him by saying that the biggest thing he ever caught was himself! Besides fishing, he loved surfing, camping, snorkelling, spear-fishing, scuba-diving, sailing, boating, hiking, listening to Rock & Reggae music and camping. In fact, he used to camp in Paria, with his family, from as early as ten years old.

Simon was not financially wealthy, but he was rich in spirit – he had fortitude. He was charitable & affable. He loved his family very much and lived his life focussed on trying to take care of them and be there for them no matter what the circumstance. He leaves to mourn his daughter Celine, his mother Irene, his father, Haydn, his wife Alena, and his sister Andrea and of course all of his friends. He was laid to rest in a private burial at sea at the mouth of the first bocas near to the "tooth", "down-the-islands", one of his many favourite fishing spots, where he absolutely loved to be. May his soul now rest in peace!
