BOYS

It all started about 35 years ago.

A bunch of boys were brought together by fate and divided into classes. They were the newest Fatima students and went on to conquer all that life threw at them, from sports to studies to well, some things that can't be spoken – or written – about.

30 years later most of us still going strong – though we've lost some of our brothers

Those years in Fatima prepared the class of 89 and 91 for life after school – from jobs to starting families, all done in a way that only a Fatima boy could do them.

Those years in Fatima prepared the class of 89 and 91 for life after school – from jobs to starting families, all done in a way that only a Fatima boy could do them.

And so, 30 or so years on, the guys gathered in their numbers. The Reunion was a chance to reconnect over five days of liming, praying and playing.

What's changed...

Not much has changed – a few more pounds here, a bit less hair there. Some of the guys have not changed at all over the 30-odd years that have passed.

Oh, and they learned that they had been singing the college song wrong all these years.

What hasn't changed...

What remains the same is the innate ability for shit talk and to buss a lime, no matter where, or how big the lime is.

The climax was a day on the field, the same field, the same pavilion that held so many memories – of football, cricket, of Harry taking charge of football and cricket and Freddie taking care of the field.

Chance to renew midday league rivalries and, of course, to lime.

Group 2, of course, had a diabolical plan to sweep the sports day, a plan that almost worked.

Memories of midday league, a cricket final that Group 4 won that, somehow nobody but Stokeley could recall.

In the end...

Group 2 took the football and All Fours honours

Group 1 were cricket winners

Stokeley was the fastest over 100 metres, BUT

He couldn't beat Ian in a lap.

Form 2 Group 4 emerged champions of the inter-class cricket league. After playing three preliminary games and a semi-final, they had enough to come and defeat Form 2 Group 1 in the final. They did this under the superb captaincy of J. Rahael who unfortunately was suspended for the finals. His absence, however, was not missed by the result.

- Runners-up - Form 2 Group 1
- 3rd Place - Form 1 Group 1
- 4th Place - Form 1 Group 3

Congratulations to Form 1 Group 1 and Form 1 Group 3 on making it to the semi-finals. They were the only two Form 1's to beat a Form 2.
